

MCDONALD SONGS

you get so worried about my feeling, have to get the bottom of this, I've listened all yr excuses its the truth I need, I know yr thinking it always be half around & ill be waitin for you I know you think my love is endless but girl that just aint true

so easily said in passin always followed by some way out youve got me so dizzy I'm wanderin what its all about all this talk about us & the future how real is this future you see maybe loves just a word for one but its important to me daddy I heard it all before but I cant give up till I know for sure oh cant you see I hang on yr every word this aint no game I'm prayin I really love you dont promise nothin that ya cant live up to
